CAREGIVER'S AUTHORIZATION AFFIDAVIT

NOTICES:

1. This declaration does not affect the rights of the minor's parent/s or legal guardian/s regarding the care, custody, and control of the minor, and does not mean that the caregiver has legal custody of the minor. (Family Code 6552)
2. Any person who relies on this affidavit has no obligation to make any further inquiry or investigation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

To Caregivers:

1. "Qualified relative" for purposes of Item 5 means a spouse, parent, step-parent, brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister, half-brother, half-sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, first cousin, or any person denoted by the prefix grand or great, or the spouse of any of the person/s specified in this definition, even after the marriage has been terminated by death or dissolution.
2. The law may require you, if you are not a relative or a currently licensed foster parent, to obtain a foster home license in order to care for a minor. If you have any questions, please contact your local department of social services.
3. If the minor stops living with you, you are required to notify any school, health care provider, or health care service plan to which you have given this affidavit.
4. If you do not have the information requested in Item 8 (California Driver's License or I.D.), you will need to provide another form of identification such as your social security number or Medi-Cal number.
5. A Caregiver's Affidavit doesn't authorize the caregiver to exercise any legal or educational rights such as authorizing field trips, access to student records or parental consent in the Special Education process.

To School Officials:

1. Section 48204 of the Education Code provides that this affidavit constitutes a sufficient basis for a determination of residency of the minor, without the requirement of a guardianship or other custody order, unless the school district determines from actual facts that the minor is not living with the caregiver.
2. The school district may require additional reasonable evidence that the caregiver lives at the address provided in Item 4.

To Health Care Providers and Health Care Service Plans

1. A person who acts in good faith reliance upon a caregiver's authorization affidavit to provide medical or dental care, without actual liability or to civil liability to any person/s, and is not subject to professional disciplinary action, for that reliance if the applicable portions of the form are completed.
2. This affidavit does not confer dependency for health care coverage purposes.
